

The previous poem was written as the author thought of battles fought over the years by soldiers risking their lives to defend their country. Today we fight a daily war against a very real Enemy. It may be a different style of battle, yet we face the same battle weariness and the same temptation to flee! May each one of us be able to someday say as Paul did in II Timothy 4:7:

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith."

Be encouraged, my friend, and HOLD THE LINE!

Kids' Christmas Hour

Blessings & Answers to Prayer

-CEF held "Kids' Christmas Hour" during the Christmas in Montrose activities on Dec. 3-4. 57 children visited us to make a Christmas gift & hear about the true meaning of Christmas: the birth of our Savior! Many boys & girls stayed to eat a snack, color a picture, or watch a Christmas video while their parents shopped in the Montrose Bible Conference Dining Hall.

-Two little boys blessed my heart as they told me the story of the Wordless Book, then quoted several Bible verses they had memorized! Praise God for parents who love Him and desire for their children to know the truth of God's Word.

-God has answered SO many specific prayers this fall: for teachers, class helpers, protection from illness, growing classes, new class locations, and bus drivers. Thank you for faithfully bringing our needs before the throne of grace. You are a blessing!
